Tariff Taxers--and the Home

TAXING SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Little Willie, Jr., and Ethelinda start off to school—On their blank books they paid a tariff of 25 per cent.
On their pencils they also paid 25 per cent tariff tax and in addition 1/2 of a cent each as a specific duty.

The pride of Little Willie Jr.'s heart is one of those combination pencil, eraser, penholder and stamp arrangements that he had saved out of his firecracker money. On this he paid 40 per cent tariff tax.

Ethelinda's pride was a little fountain pen for which she had foregone a new doll's cap. On this pen she paid 30 per cent tariff tax.

On the penholders they paid 25 per cent tariff tax.
The chamomile skin penwiper was taxed 50 per cent.

The sponge rubber 40 per cent.
For the penknife each had they paid 40 per cent, and then in addition 10 cents of tariff tax apiece on each knife.

On the little school boxes in which they kept the above in orderly arrangement the tariff tax was 55 per cent.

Willie Jr. had a little school slate-book for temporary memoranda tariff-taxed 25 per cent.

Ethelinda has a school bag of fiber for her school books taxed by the tariff 45 per cent.

Willie Jr. used a simple strap that is protected by a tariff tax of 40 per cent.

The little girl has a bottle of ink for her fountain pen, taxed by the tariff 25 per cent.

Her brother has a pocket comb of cheap horn for use in the tousled emergencies after recess, 50 per cent tariff-taxed.

He paid a tariff tax of 35 per cent on his marbles.
She paid a tariff tax of 35 per cent on her dollies.

Between them they have a cheap school umbrella, and mother has paid a tariff tax of 50 per cent on that.

If Willie Jr. has to wear glasses this fall father will get them, and he will pay a tariff tax of 50 per cent on them.

In getting ready for school that morning they washed with soap tariff-taxed 20 per cent, dried themselves on towels tariff-taxed 45 per cent, polished their shoes with polish tariff-taxed 25 per cent and brushed their teeth and hair with brushes tariff-taxed 40 per cent.

And when they do waste their little allowance once in a while with a riotous candy-fest, the tariff taxes them 1/4 of a cent an ounce and adds 15 per cent additional tax. This is on cheap candy; if it is a safer, purer and better product the tariff taxes the youngsters 50 per cent.—

HUGHITT QUILTS AS HEAD OF ROAD

Retires from Presidency of Northwestern to Lead Board of Directors.

A FORMER ROCK ISLANDER

S. A. Lynde, Another from Here, Becomes Vice President—Other Changes Are Made.

Marvin Hughitt, the veteran president of the Chicago & Northwestern road, who in the 50's worked as telegraph operator in Rock Island and who first met his wife at the old Rock Island house, where he boarded and where she was a waitress, retired from office yesterday to become chairman of the board of directors. He had been president for 24 years and his resignation was voluntary. The board of directors elected William A. Gardner, formerly vice president in charge of the operation of the road and also president of the Chicago, Minneapolis & Omaha, to succeed him.

Other Changes Announced.
Conclusion of the meeting were:

Samuel A. Lynde, general attorney, also a former Rock Islander, son of the late Judge Cornelius Lynde, elected vice vice president in charge of the legal and financial departments, in place of E. E. Osborn of New York, who retired on account of ill health, and was also made assistant secretary.

Richard H. Aishton, general manager, appointed vice president of operation and maintenance, succeeding Mr. Gardner.
William Cantillon, assistant general manager, promoted to general manager in place of Mr.
Aishton.

Willis E. Morse, general superintendent, promoted to assistant general manager.

Samuel G. Strickland, appointed general superintendent of the lines east of the Missouri river, except the Minnesota and South Dakota divisions, and Chester T. Dike was appointed general superintendent of the Minnesota and South Dakota divisions.

The changes in the operating department are effective Nov. 1.

Last of the "Old Guard."

Mr. Hughitt, who is in his 73d year, is in many ways one of the most remarkable men in the railway service. With the almost sole exception of E. P. Ripley, president of the Santa Fe, he is the last of the "old guard" of famous railroad presidents who made railway history from the time they attained their first important positions. He was born in Genoa, Cayuga county, New York, in 1837, and began his career as a telegraph operator at Albany for the New York and Buffalo Tel-graph company in 1852. In 1854 he removed to Chicago and worked as an operator for the Illinois and Missouri Telegraph company.

Mr. Hughitt entered the railway service in 1856 and until 1862 he was consecutively superintendent of telegraph and trainmaster of the St.
Louis, Alton & Chicago. From 1862 to 1864 he was superintendent of the southern division of the Illinois-Central.

Performed Great Feat.
It was during the latter period that Mr. Hughitt performed an operating feat that has never been surpassed.
The government suddenly called upon the road to move a large detachment of troops at a time when the road was flooded with traffic. The force became somewhat demoralized at the magnitude of the problem, whereupon Mr. Hughitt took his place at the dispatcher's key and performed the task without interruption to traffic.

No sooner had the work been accomplished than orders came from the government to move the same troops back again immediately. Although at the key 36 hours continuously, Mr. Hughitt started over again and duplicated his performance at the expense of 72 hours of continuous service. When he awakened two days later, he found that he had been promoted to the position of general superintendent of the road.

IS SENT TO COUNTY JAIL

Larry Ryan Goes to Keep Jim Haley Company.

Larry Ryan, a compatriot of Jim Haley, was arrested last night and this morning he was sent down to the county jail to keep Jim company. Larry is troubled by "boozitis," that is, he generally has too much liquor in his system for his own good. During the last two weeks the police say he has been on no less than six successive toots and each time he was hauled into the police station and kept there until sober. Acting Magistrate Wells decided this morning that Larry had been given enough chances to remain sober and so he was sentenced to spend the next 20 days in the county jail.

Gus Kerres was fined $1 and costs on a charge of disorderly conduct. His particular offense consisted of stealing an alarm clock. Gus was employed at the Carl Lorenzen Manufacturing company until several days ago, when he was discharged. He returned yesterday and demanded that a lantern which he claimed as his be given to him. It was refused him, whereupon he took the clock to even matters up.
He paid his fine and was released.

PACKETS STILL RUNNING

White Collar Steamers to Operate Until Nov. 20.

Nov. 20 has been fixed as the date of the close of navigation for the White Collar steamers, which are plying between Rock Island and Quincy.
All of the boats are doing a freight business and there is no inclination to close sooner than Nov. 20, unless navigation is impeded by ice.

The Black Hawk continues to make her regular trips between Rock Island and Burlington, the Wenona between Burlington and Keokuk, and the Keokuk between Keokuk and Quincy.
None of these crafts is doing much passenger business, but the freight traffic is heavier than usual.

The Morning Star has gone on the ways at Rock Island to have its hull lengthened 25 feet. It will not be in service again until next spring. The Columbia and the Helen Blair have both gone into the harbor for the winter.

DANE DELIGHT IN VIOLIN RECITAL

Axel Skovgaard Charms Audience by His Mastery at Augustana.

BRILLIANT IN TECHNIQUE

Mixed Program Displays Interpretative Versatility—Charlotte Rutherford Ikert in Songs.

A treat for music lovers was the concert given last evening by the Skovgaard concert party at Augustana college. Drizzling rain and penetrating chill no doubt prevented many from attending, and only a fair sized audience greeted the concert company, which is making its fifth annual tour of the United States. Great credit is due the Associated Charities for bringing such high class artists to the three cities, and it is to be regretted that not more people availed themselves of the opportunity of enjoying such a rare treat. However, the enthusiastic appreciation of the audience more than made up for lack of numbers.
